From the Search Committee

“He is a very humble person that discipled others through Scripture.” -Derrick Barker

“Seems to be very hands on and forward thinking. (And rumor has it that he can leap tall buildings in a single bound!)” -Kenny Watson

“Several of Clint’s references mentioned discipleship as his strength. He models discipleship in his personal life. Clint also stated that discipling relationships are important for every member of the church.” -Larry Wright

“Emphasis on relationships. He believes that is where a Christian life begins.” -Chuck Marquis

“I like that he holds tightly to Scripture when he teaches. He doesn’t talk over the congregation, but rather he teaches and brings them along with him.” -Scott Hume

“The thing I have enjoyed the most in getting to know the Carters is their genuineness. They truly are excited about the future God has for them at Emmanuel Baptist Church.” -Richard Metscher

From Clint Carter

Ministry Statement:

I am a husband, father, teacher, and leader who savors life and friendships. I desire to collaborate with other leaders to shape a church culture in which we make disciples of Jesus as we Love God, Grow Together, and Change the World.

Emmanuel Baptist Family, it is an honor to be considered for the role of your pastor. Just over one year ago, I began praying that God would provide a church in Oklahoma for me to pastor; little did I know that at the same time God was leading Brother David into a change that would open up this opportunity. Oklahoma feels like home to our family and we are looking forward to being back. I am excited about the opportunity to lead EBC as we make disciples together here in Weatherford and around the world. I'm looking forward to learning more about our church and getting to know each and every one of you personally. May God richly bless us all as we seek His guidance together and walk in the way He directs.

♪ Notes ♪ from ♪ Mark ♪

This is an exciting moment of time in the life of Emmanuel Baptist Church. This weekend Clint Carter and his family will be with us as together we continue to seek the one who will become our next pastor. Our Search Committee has been diligent and persistent in seeking the person whom they feel God is leading. This person is Clint Carter. Please make every effort this weekend to get acquainted with Clint and his family. We, as a church can meet them on Saturday from 1-4 PM in the Gym. Sunday I know you will be excited to hear him bring God's message in our morning and evening services. As a church we need and must continue to pray. Pray for Clint and his family, pray for our church and pray for your own self that each one of us will be sensitive to the leading of the Holy Spirit. As you pray for this exciting time pray for those friends who do not know Christ as their Savior. When we are faithful in our seeking and prayers, our God is always faithful to supply our every need.

*Remember Jesus Christ, risen from the dead, the offspring of David, as preached in my gospel, <sup>9</sup>for which I am suffering, bound with chains as a criminal. But the word of God is not bound! Therefore I endure everything for the sake of the elect, that they also may obtain the salvation that is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory. The saying is trustworthy, for: If we have died with him, we will also live with him; if we endure, we will also reign with him; if we deny him, he also will deny us; if we are faithless, he remains faithful—for he cannot deny himself. 2 Timothy 2:9-13

Romans 5:8, "but God shows his love for us in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us" Today at the Super Summer Executive Staff Retreat one of the preachers for this summer was speaking and said something that I really needed to hear. As he struggles and even has failed in his walk with Christ he was telling someone that he was afraid that the sin in his life had disqualified him from ministering. The person he told this to laughed and told him that, "Yes, it does. Our sin absolutely disqualifies us from ministry and if we don't understand that then we don't understand grace." I was taken back because so many times in my own life I have justified myself even in my sin because it wasn't "that bad." The truth though, is that we are not called to be good or even good enough, we are called to be Holy and perfect and when we miss that perfection, then we are disqualified...BUT GOD! Isn't God's Grace just AMAZING?
