Emmanuel Family,

I am very grateful for the many ways you have blessed me over the past month. Dinner invitations, cookies and treats, gift certificates and meals - you have made sure that I haven't gone hungry! My family arrives this weekend and I can't wait for you to get to know them.

Please feel free to stop by the church office some weekday for a visit. I try to keep my afternoons flexible so that I can spend time with you. If you are a ministry team or committee chairperson, please let me know when your next team meeting is. I'd love to come for the meeting and learn about how your team serves and equips our church.

Enjoy God's grace today,

♪ Notes ♪ from ♪ Mark ♪

Salvation – the act of being saved. We begin to understand this in that first moment we accept Christ as our Savior. We begin to see our sins and understand the ramification of what those sins mean. In that moment we want to be saved. We want protection from the evil that is around us. This may seem pretty simplistic thinking, but have you considered that when someone is saved it always costs the one doing the saving. Salvation is never free. If you were to rescue someone from danger, it costs you. It cost the time spent doing something you want. It costs effort whether mental, physical, or emotional. It costs you giving of yourself. It requires you to invest in others. Think of Christ and what He paid for it started long before He came to earth. Christ the ability to be in Heaven for a period of time. It cost Christ the freedom to be as He was in the beginning. It cost Christ His life. This salvation of our, was purchased at great cost may we never take it lightly. I pray that it will become more dear to us as we grow in our love for God.

And you, who were dead in your trespasses and the uncircumcision of your flesh, God made alive together with him, having forgiven us all our trespasses, by canceling the record of debt that stood against us with its legal demands. This he set aside, nailing it to the cross. Colossians 2:13-14
