I had the opportunity to spend the morning with Brother David. We drove around town and he introduced me to our church members who are either homebound or in assisted living facilities. I enjoyed getting to meet these older saints and was blessed by their love for Jesus and their trust in God. Many of them expressed their love for our church and how they missed being with our Family.

Emmanuel Family, let me encourage you to connect with these sisters and brothers in Christ. Drop by for a visit; take time to pray for them (you can find their names on our weekly prayer sheet); pick up the phone and check on them. Your efforts will encourage them greatly. We are grateful for the years that they served Jesus here among us. We want them to know that they are still loved and valued by us. I plan to go visit each of them the first Monday morning of the month if any of you would like to join me.

I'm grateful to be apart of this Family,
Pastor Clint

Church Family,

Words fail to even come close to express the overwhelming sense of thankfulness and gratitude that Beth and I experienced Sunday, both morning and night! So many expressions of love were given to us through words, cards, thoughtful gestures, and in the money tree. Your generosity has made a memory that will last a lifetime. Again, thank you for serving alongside us these past years and we pray that God will work mightily in the life of Emmanuel Baptist Church.

Love, Mark and Beth

As I have thought through what to say in this post, I've struggled with what I want to say and what I can say. Madrid was great this year. We were able to work once again with people from North Africa that for the most part are not reached out to with the Gospel. They are a people group in a part of Europe that is ignored. When you go to the same place and work with the same people multiple years, you begin to build relationships with the team and the other works. Even though I have only gotten to spend 1 week in Spain for a year, I pray for our friends there all the time. They have poured their lives into a mission to see a people group receive Christ. They have labored there for many years with only a handful of visual victories that is until the last year. In a few weeks, Ronaldo Garcia and myself will have the opportunity to share with you many stories about how God is working in Madrid. This will not be online, as we cannot share specifics online for the security of our friends there in Spain and God's work there. Thank you for you many prayers and financial support from this trip. God is at work around the world and here in Weatherford.
