Emmanuel Family,

Last Sunday morning, I shared about our church's need for a Discipleship Map; how we need a clear, simple pathway for every believer in our church to walk to spiritual maturity. When I shared this with our Deacons and Leadership Team at the beginning of June, both groups encouraged me to pursue this process and present it to our Church Family.

If you were not able to attend last Sunday, let me encourage you to watch the sermon online - you can find it at our church Facebook page. In the sermon, I laid out the Discipleship Map of "Know Jesus, Grow Together, Bless the World". Our Deacons will be bringing a proposal to the Business Meeting this Sunday night that we adopt this Discipleship Map as our church's new Mission Statement. If you have any questions about this, please give me a call at the office this week or come by and visit with me. Our Personnel Team will also be bringing a recommendation regarding our process for hiring new leadership for our Children's and Worship Ministries. Please plan to be at the Business Meeting for these important decisions AND plan to stay for the Watermelon Fest afterwards.

I'm grateful to be serving here with you,
Pastor Clint

Watermelon Fest

Following Business Meeting at 6pm

Many people this weekend have asked if I'm still recovering, caught up on my sleep or rested yet. Years of doing this I really only need 3 things to get me back. I need a good shower, a night in my own bed and to be with my family and I can get over being at camp.

I've traveled well over 15,000 miles this summer between, Super Summer, VBS, Preteen Camp, GoStudents Mission trip, and Falls Creek. Now after a few days alone with my family, all those miles traveled will eventually be gotten over.

I have led student groups to Falls Creek 16 different times, thousands of students have been with me to Falls Creek and after a few months I'll get over camp and be ready to prepare for the 17th group. BUT...

I will never GET OVER though the hundreds of students that I have seen give their lives to Christ, recommit their lives and/or surrender their lives to vocational ministry. The planning, the miles, the sleepless nights, the hours praying and the effort to pour into others are all worth it to make disciples that make disciples.
