♪ Notes ♪ from ♪ Mark ♪

What do you desire in serving God. Is it to be the very best as you serve God? Is it excellence? When we desire excellence and when it is rooted in the love and knowledge of God, then it becomes a gift from God. To consistently and constantly want the very best for the sole purpose of glorifying God and for this to become our passion is so desperately needed in our world. Working on that which pleases God and having respect for quality are found in this desire for excellence. Yet, when we let our sinful desires lead this desire for excellence, it will be replaced with a passion for power, which focuses on my wants and my needs. This can be a subtle shift and it may be months or years down the road before we realize that our desires are not God's. An immature faith will reach for power and control, even in little things. A growing and mature faith will desire whatever it takes to glorify God. Strive for excellence always – and let God receive the glory.

For where jealousy and selfish ambition exist, there will be disorder and every vile practice. But the wisdom from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, open to reason, full of mercy and good fruits, impartial and sincere. And a harvest of righteousness is sown in peace by those who make peace. James 3:16-17

Preach the Word, Teach the Body, Reach the World

I have tried to write this little post for the past 4 hours. In that I time I have taken multiple messages from Weatherford School, My family, and a friend in Africa, OKC and Clinton. It has been crazy. Also, in that time I had gentlemen in my office for about an hour talking. Some days begin with nothing on the radar and all of a sudden with a phone call, a text or an email that takes a turn that you did not see coming. In those times I remember verses like Psalm 28:7 that my strength comes not from myself but from the Lord. When times get crazy and you feel overwhelmed and not in control, remember that God is.

Psalm 28:7 The Lord is my strength and my shield; in him my heart trusts, and I am helped; my heart exults, and with my song I give thanks to him.
