BAPTIST CHURCH

August 20, 2019

Pastor's Note

I was reminded this week of how important the 3 minutes before and after a Sunday morning service are. Those 6 minutes are the best opportunity we have each week to connect with guests and visitors. Visitors often show up right before the service and leave directly after it. If you are going to meet them and have a conversation, it's most likely going to happen in those 6 minutes.

So I have a challenge for you! Will you make it a goal this week NOT to talk to church members during those 6 minutes? Instead, will you spend the 3 minutes before and after a service introducing yourself to a guest and having a conversation with them? And you don't have to do this by yourself! Take another church member with you and greet the guest together - that can make for an easier conversation.

I'm grateful for the warm and welcoming atmosphere that many of you work hard to create each week. I'm grateful for our new Greeter Teams at our Welcome Desk each Sunday to welcome and help newcomers. Let's all be on the "Greeting Team" each week - especially during these 6 important minutes.
