Pastor's Notes:

EBC Family,

I hope you celebrated Jesus well on Resurrection Sunday! I was grateful to see many of you here in the church parking lot. I missed your hugs and handshakes, but it was a joy to at least see your faces! Thank you to Roger and Nicholas for your work to facilitate our worship service in the parking lot! I've also heard that many enjoyed the EBC City-Wide Egg Scavenger Hunt on Saturday - thank you Jake for setting up that activity for families!

This coming Sunday will be our last week in the book of Matthew. I hope that through this series, you have seen yourself in the characters from the book and have learned how to better honor Jesus in your own life. The next book of the Bible we will be studying together is the book of James which is an unusual letter. It is more like the Wisdom book of Proverbs than other NT letters. James is all about learning God's wisdom for Christian living. I've never taught through this book, so I'm looking forward to learning alongside you each week.

There are two ways that you can watch our worship service each week. 1) You can watch us LIVE on Facebook on Sundays at 10:45 a.m. (the video will also be posted on Youtube later in the week). 2) You can call the church office and ask for a DVD. These are free of charge! We also have a few DVD players available for your use if your personal one won't play the discs.

I am grateful for you my Church Family! I pray that God will use this unusual time in our lives to refine our faith and refocus us on His purposes for our Church.

Pastor Clint
