EBC Family,

It was a blessing to share the Lord's Supper with you yesterday morning. (Even if the prepackaged wafers tasted a little too much like styrofoam.) I'm grateful for these times when we remember Jesus' sacrifice and how he is the only reason we are accepted by God. I love celebrating the Lord's Supper with you and always look forward to it!

Some of you might have noticed how over the past couple of months we've been singing a couple of songs after the sermon each week. This originated from a conversation Nicholas and I were having. We were talking about how the right response to hearing God's Word is to worship Him. But sometimes as Baptists, we wrongly think that the Invitation song is just for those who need to make a decision. We've seen in the book of James that every time we hear God's Word, all of us have a decision to make. Will we obey what we've read? And we need time as a church to reflect on the work God is doing in each of our hearts.

So, I challenged Nicholas to consider moving some of our singing after the sermon. We're still singing the same number of songs each week. But instead of doing 4 before the sermon and 1 afterwards, we are dividing them more evenly. I hope that you will use the extended time of worship after the sermon to let God work on your heart. Use it as a time to repent, a time to commit yourself to obey, a time to pray that God will grow our church to reflect His Word, and a time to praise Him for the Good News you just heard.

I'm grateful to be part of the EBC Family with you,
Pastor Clint
