EBC Family,

I wanted to give you an update on a couple of things happening in the Carter's world. We dropped off Madi and Emma at OBU on Thursday. The start of college is a bittersweet time for me. On the one hand I'm proud of my children and excited to see them grow and flourish. On the other hand, I will miss having them at home. Downsizing to a family of 4 is going to take some getting used to - it's been 16 years since we only had 2 kids at the house! But changes are part of life on earth. I'm grateful for a Heavenly Father who walks us through them.

I also wanted to give you a "heads up" that if you hear about the Carter house being put on the market, don't let that worry you. We are not leaving EBC! I've been praying for a few months that God would provide us a house with more room for hosting. We have a contract on a house here in town and will be putting ours on the market this week. I'd be honored if you'd pray with us that God would provide a buyer quickly for our current home.

Finally, let me reiterate what I said yesterday morning. With the start of the SWOSU semester, we will have new college students visiting our church in the coming weeks. Please be intentional about welcoming them into our Church Family. Greet them. Have conversations. Take them to lunch. Be a blessing to these incoming students!

I am grateful to be part of the EBC Family!
