EBC Family,

Some of you might have noticed the disturbance at the end of our service on Sunday morning. There were a couple of young men who visited and told me during the invitation that they had a word from God they needed to share with our congregation. I told them that they wouldn't be allowed to share it publicly but could share it with me privately after the service. Instead, they stood up and started shouting at our congregation after the final prayer. I was grateful for our men who stepped up to help escort them from the building.

Our Scripture Reading Challenge this week is to read Job chapter 3 aloud at least twice. Remember as you read that this is poetry. You are getting a glimpse into how Job felt after losing everything good in his life. Notice that while Job doesn't blame God of evil, he is completely honest about his desire for his life to be over. He is confused in his grief and doesn't try to hide it.

If you were here Sunday, you heard Nicholas Callen's resignation as our Minister of Worship. I am saddened by this news. Nicholas has been a blessing to work with and has become a good friend. For now, he doesn't feel called to vocational ministry. He is seeking God's direction for his life and would like to be part of a smaller expression of the body of Christ - like a house church. I thank God for Nicholas and pray that God will direct his path.

Regarding next steps for our Church Family, your Personnel Committee met Sunday night and is putting together a plan for the interim period as well as preparing for our next search for a minister. Please pray that God will provide a person to lead our worship ministry.

I'm grateful to be part of the EBC Family,
Pastor Clint
