EBC Family,

I hope you'll join us for the next 7 Sunday nights at 6:00 as we ask the question, "Why Am I a Baptist?" After this study, you will be able to identify what is distinctive about Baptists as well as know something about our origins and history. When I took Baptist History at Seminary, the professor started the course by asking us if we thought it was necessary for Baptists to know Baptist history. My response was "No, I don't think it's necessary." My reasoning was that I had been a Baptist for 40 years and served as a minister in Baptist churches for 20 years without knowing these things. I reasoned that I had gotten by just fine without knowing our history and distinctives. But over the course of that semester, I realized how short-sighted my response was. As I learned what is distinctive about us, I realized that these were foundational truths that my life was built on. To lose these distinctions would be destructive and detrimental to my faith. Because of that class in seminary, I have repented of my ignorance and changed my stance. I do think it's necessary for Baptists to know where we came from and what we believe. That is why I am excited to share these things with you in the coming weeks!

It's a joy to be part of the EBC Family,

Pastor Clint
