EBC Family,

The start of the new year can be a good time to start a new Bible reading plan. There are a couple that I can recommend to you. My favorite is the M'Cheyne plan (named after the Scottish pastor who devised it). This plan takes you through the Old Testament once and through the New Testament and Psalms twice during the year. This is the plan I have used most often over the past decade.

I tried a new plan in 2021 called the 5 Day Reading Plan. It takes you chronologically through the OT and mixes in the NT, Psalms and Proverbs along the way. For those who need a couple of days off from reading each week, this is a good plan

For 2022 I'll be trying one called the 52 Week Plan. This plan has you read a different genre of literature each day of the week (Gospels on Sundays, Law on Mondays, History on Tuesdays, etc.) I'm curious to see how this one works out.

There are also a multitude of reading plans in the Youversion Bible App. You can find M'Cheyne's plan there, too. One advantage to using the Youversion App is that you can listen to the Bible being read!

I will post a link to each of these plans on Facebook today for anyone who wants to try one out this coming year. I know that some people get discouraged when they miss a few days and feel like they can't catch up. Let me encourage you not to worry about catching up. Don't worry about making sure that you read all the way through a plan. The important thing is that you read God's Word TODAY. Regardless of days that you miss, just pick it up and read something today. I pray that God will bless your time in His Word this year!

It is a joy to be part of the EBC Family,
Pastor Clint
