EBC Family,

I was grateful to have so many of you join us last night for our book study on prayer. If you weren't able to join us the first week, feel free to jump in anywhere along the way. This is a book that you don't have to read in its entirety to be encouraged by a section. This week we are reading chapters 3, 4, and 5. The value in reading a book like this together is that it gets us thinking about prayer, talking about prayer, and practicing prayer. Let me encourage you to stop and pray along the way.

We will not be having our regularly scheduled Sunday evening activities on February 13. Super Bowl Sunday is a cultural holiday. It's an easy way to spend time with people who don't normally go to church. Let me encourage you to gather with others that evening - whether you watch the game or not. Take advantage of this opportunity to build relationships with people that don't go to church. Host a party and invite others or accept an invitation to a party at someone else's house. There's not a better way to spend Super Bowl Sunday than building relationships and talking with a friend about Jesus.

I'm grateful to be part of the EBC Family,

Pastor Clint
