EBC Family,

This week's reading in "A Praying Life" is significant for me personally. It's about the role that cynicism plays in our faith and in our praying. By nature I am a very cynical person. I am often cynical to guard myself from disappointment. I am often cynical and suspect the motives of other people. And yet as the author points out, cynicism destroys intimacy; cynicism undercuts our ability to trust God and find joy in Him. At it's root, cynicism questions the active goodness of God on our behalf. Like Adam and Eve in the Garden, we are swayed by the Serpent's lie to doubt God's motives and His goodness.

If you haven't joined us yet for the study, pick up a book this week, read chapters 9-11, and come this Sunday night. Even if you don't read any of the rest of this book, you will be helped by this week's conversation about how cynicism is detrimental and antithetical to a life of faith.

Plan to join us for a Church-Wide Lunch and Dessert Auction on Sunday, March 6. Call the Church Office to let us know if you will be bringing a dessert for the auction. The proceeds of the auction help fund our Children's Ministry - including summer camp. Anytime you have the opportunity to eat a meal with God's people - you should do it. Shared meals were one of the marks of the early church (Acts 2:46) and are a great way to deepen your relationship with your brothers and sisters in Christ.

I'm grateful to be serving Jesus with you,

Pastor Clint
