EBC Family,

I will be out the next 2 Sundays. I'll be in Colorado next week for our Men's Camping Trip and then taking a family trip the following weekend. This might be the first time I'll been absent for 2 Sundays in a row at EBC. Vacations for pastors are an odd thing. On the one hand, pastors need a break from work - they need a chance to recharge and rest. On the other hand, pastors don't need a break from their spiritual community - we still need the rhythms of weekly worship and Christian fellowship. That's why I rarely miss a Sunday - even when I take the week off - I still want to gather for worship with my Church Family. I'm grateful to serve here with you at EBC. I'm grateful not only for the opportunity to work here, but even more so for the opportunity to belong here.

So the next time I see most of you will be on July 24 at the Quarterly Business Meeting at 5:00 and the Ice Cream Fellowship at 6:00. I hope you'll be able to make it! In the mean time, keep filling up your Summer Bingo card as you Grow Together with your Church Family.

It's a joy to belong to Emmanuel Baptist Church!
